Do we have any relationships or associations with Financial Product issuers?

Associations

We at Aussie Wealthy Life and Hunter Green Pty Ltd are privately owned and are not part of any company which issues financial products. There are no ownership ties or other relationships with any financial service product provider which might unduly influence which financial products we are authorized by Hunter Green to recommend.

Referral Arrangements

Aussie Wealthy Life has an agreement with Dhillon Pty Ltd trading as ANZ Mobile lending South Brisbane ABN 68 602 083 590 to receive a fee in the event of a successful client referral to them. The fee is 0.20% of loan amount drawn down AUD plus GST, however the clawback period within 12 months of loan settlement apply in the event if client changes the lender or cancels the arrangement.

Alternative Forms of Remuneration Register

Licensees and their representatives are required to maintain a register of any form of alternative remuneration paid or received with a value between $100 and $300. This register is available for your inspection on request.

What kinds of financial products are we authorised to provide?

I am authorized provide financial product advice and deal in a financial product, to retail and wholesale clients, in relation to the following financial products:

- Securities – meaning shares listed on the Australian Stock Exchange;
- Superannuation, personal super or corporate super
- Interests in managed investment schemes including investor directed portfolio services – these are managed funds, master trusts and “wrap” accounts;
- Retirement savings accounts ("RSA") products;
- Debentures, stocks or bonds issued or proposed to be issued by a government;
- Deposit and payment products; and
- life products including investment life insurance products and life risk insurance products;

I am also authorised to provide financial product advice on, and arrange, Managed Discretionary Account services not operated by Hunter Green, to retail and wholesale clients.

If you do not wish to receive our advice, we may deal on your behalf by carrying out your instructions.

If you do not obtain advice, you face the risk that the Financial Product/s you select will not fully take into account your objectives, financial situation or needs.

How do I pay for Aussie Wealthy Life advice?

Wealth Advice

Aussie Wealthy Life does not charge for initial meetings with prospective clients, the upfront and ongoing fee discussed in initial meeting and disclosed in Statement of Advice. Aussie Wealthy Life charges clients an ‘annual strategy and advice fee’. This fee is based on factors such as the complexity of your situation, the areas of advice & expertise required and the estimated workload. This fee is recalculated and renewed with clients every 12 months. This fee is negotiated with you and can range from $400 to $4,000.

The method and the specific amount you will pay for Aussie Wealthy Life advice will be explained in your Terms of Engagement and Statement of Advice (SoA) documents.

Life and disability Insurance

For the strategy, setup, maintenance and review of life and disability insurance, Aussie Wealthy Life may be paid a commission. This commission is fully disclosed to the client/s and is related to the work required. Aussie Wealthy Life will usually accept a ‘hybrid’ commission structure.

Hybrid – Aussie Wealthy Life may be paid a commission of up to 88% of the first year’s premium and 25% of ongoing years’ premiums. For example, a commission on a premium of $1000 is up to $880 upfront and up to $250 per year thereafter.

The basis and amount of all commissions and fees for service will be set out in the SoA and explained by your Adviser.

How can you give us instructions?

You may tell us how you would like to give us instructions. For example, by telephone, fax or other means such as e-mail.

What information should you provide to receive personalised advice?

You need to provide us with a list of your personal objectives, details of your current financial situation and any relevant information, so that we can offer you the most appropriate advice possible.

You have the right not to tell us, if you do not wish to. However, if you do not, the advice you receive may not be appropriate to your needs, objectives and financial situation.

We are also legally required to verify your identity, so we will ask to see your passport, driver's license or other identity documents. You should read the warnings contained in the Statement of Advice carefully before making any decision relating to Financial products.

Other documents you will be given if you receive advice from us.

When we or our Authorised Representatives give you financial advice you will be provided with a Statement of Advice (SoA) which will contain details about:

- the advice provided, including the basis on which it was given
- fees, commissions and other benefits
- any associations we have with Financial Product Issuers or other parties which may have influenced the advice we give you.

After receiving our initial advice, a Record of Advice (RoA) may be produced & retained by us or our Authorised Representative instead of an SoA if there have been no significant changes in your personal circumstances or the basis of the advice since the last SoA was provided. You can request a copy of any RoA at any time.

If we recommend to you a particular Financial Product we will give you information about the particular Financial Product—a Product Disclosure Statement—to help you make an informed decision about the Financial Product.

What information do we maintain in your file and can you examine it?

We will retain copies of your identity documents and we will maintain a record of your personal profile including details of your objectives, financial situation and needs. We also maintain records of any recommendations made to you, including the initial Statement of Advice, and any subsequent Statements of Additional Advice and Records of Advice provided to clients receiving our ongoing service. Copies of these can be requested either verbally or in writing.

We are committed to ensuring the privacy and security of your personal information. A copy of the relevant privacy policy is available on our licensees website or by contacting us. If you wish to examine your file, please ask us. We will make arrangements for you to do so.

What should you do if you have a complaint?

1. Contact us and explain the nature of your complaint.
2. If your complaint is not satisfactorily resolved within 20 days, please contact our Complaints Officer Greg Hunter on 07 3010 9785 or put your complaint in writing and send it to him at Hunter Green Pty Ltd's address. We will try and resolve your complaint quickly and fairly.
